

PARENT HELPERS

POLICY

Rationale:

- All schools greatly appreciate parents who assist positively with the implementation of the school's programs. Parent helpers however must comply with the school's expectations and practices.

Aims:

- To enhance the educational programs at the school,
- To build the partnerships between home and school.
- To provide opportunities for parents to develop their skills and become active participants in their children's education.

Implementation:

- Our school encourages the assistance of parent helpers in a wide variety of areas.
- Invitations for parents to assist in the school's programs will be regularly made via the school's newsletter, tiq biz, or through personal contact.
- Parent helpers for short-term projects such as day excursions, helping with reading, assistance with fete activities, working bees etc should be briefed by the teacher in charge as to their roles and responsibilities etc prior to commencement. At the same time matters of supervision and safety will also be discussed.
- Parent helpers for longer term activities or activities with higher levels of required expertise such as literacy rotations or school camps will be required to undertake appropriate training.
- The school may conduct formal programs such as 'Classroom Helpers' to skill and recruit parent helpers.
- Parent helpers in need of additional assistance will be provided with reasonable advice and guidance.
- Concerns relating to parent helpers should be addressed to the Principal. Parent helpers who are not reliable or do not meet the schools expectations will be required to relinquish their role.
- Reading helpers are to sign into classrooms prior to helping with reading.
- Teachers and CRT's will connect with parents as they come into the classroom in order for them to engage successfully in the activities and support the students where needed.
- For all other purposes, parent helpers are volunteers and are to be treated in accordance with the school's 'Volunteers' policy.
- Working with Children Checks will be conducted in accordance with School Council's 'Working with Children Checks' policy.
- A parent helper's morning tea will be provided annually by staff and students in recognition of the contributions of all parent helpers and volunteers.

Evaluation:

This policy will be reviewed as part of the school's three-year review cycle.

This policy was last ratified by School Council in...

August 2015