

Values: Be Safe, Be Responsible, Be Respectful & Be a Learner

From the desk...

It's Education Week. This year's theme 'Active Learners: Move, Make, Motivate' focuses on some of the amazing ways that our students learn both inside classrooms and outside through physical activities, hands-on learning and student voice.

Take this week to thank our fantastic teachers and educators for all of their hard work in teaching the next generation of Murchison and Dhurringile leaders, artists, tradespeople, educators, scientists, activists, medical staff, politicians and anything else that our children will become.

MASK: Accounts have gone out again and there will be another one sent out next week to put us back on track. Sorry, but being unwell couldn't be helped. There are two things that I need to bring to your attention to help keep the service within guidelines.

- 1) All children using the service MUST be booked in. This can be done by letting the office know.
 - 2) Cancellations are just as important. This also need to be done through the office. Some days we have spent time looking for children who haven't arrived at our care to find out they have gone home.
- 'DUTY OF CARE'. Three words that have a huge meaning to us in the MASK ROOM. If your child is booked in for a permanent day and you no longer need it, please contact us so we can change this for you. Sharon

Chaplains News

Hi all, I will be working the next two Tuesdays and Wednesdays before I leave for long service. I'm planning to do Coffee at the gate on Tuesday 30/5.

I went down to Melbourne to see my mum for Mother's Day, I hope you were spoilt! At the footy to see my beloved Dees, I sat down with my brother who is a hawks supporter. As soon as the siren sounded, I hear this. "DAD, I have autism, I'm meant to be loud", and he was. The young man kept us entertained with his passionate support for the hawks with the volume at max. It got me thinking about how tolerant the crowd was. His dad was great, gently reminding him when he was too much over the top, only for the son to say, it's football dad. At half time I turned around and the dad and I had a moment, I gave him a nod and he nodded back. NO words just connection. We often hear about hostile crowd at the footy, but not this day. I recall one of these times when he said "PROGREES, PROGREES, I want PROGREES. NO don't give it to them, your better than that. He knew how to cheer on his team. We all know people who are extra grace required. It takes energy and patience. I want to thank the crowd even though they will never read this. The Holdens from Mechanics Club are continuing to put together the flat packed kitchen for MASK.. Until next week, Chappy
